ORDER

GEOVANNY FUENTES RAMIREZ,

Defendant.
-----X

CASTEL, U.S.D.J.

Defendant's arraignment will be conducted on June 22, 2020 at 11:00 a.m. as a video/teleconference using the CourtCall platform. As requested, defense counsel will be given an opportunity to speak with defendant by telephone for fifteen minutes before the proceeding begins (i.e., at 10:45 a.m.). Defense counsel should make sure to answer a call received at the telephone number, which was previously provided to Chambers, at that time in order to confer with defendant. Chambers will provide defense counsel with a telephone number for the interpreter who will be available at the time of the pre-conference. However, it is defense counsel's responsibility to conference the interpreter in with defendant for the pre-conference.

To optimize the quality of the video feed, only the Court, defendant, defense counsel, and counsel for the Government will appear by video for each proceeding; all other participants will participate by telephone. Due to the limited capacity of the CourtCall system, only one counsel per party may participate. Co-counsel, members of the press, and the public may access the audio feed of the conference with the following information:

Call-In: (855) 268-7844

Access Code: 32091812#

PIN: 9921299#

In advance of the conference, Chambers will email the parties with further information on how to access the conference. Those participating by video will be provided a link to be pasted into their browser. The link is non-transferrable and can be used by only one person; further, it should be used only at the time of the conference because using it earlier could result in disruptions to other proceedings.

To optimize the performance of the CourtCall technology, all those participating by video should:

1. Use the most recent version of Firefox, Chrome, or Safari as their web browser. Do not use Internet Explorer.
2. Use hard-wired internet or WiFi. If using WiFi, the device should be positioned as close to the Wi-Fi router as possible to ensure a strong signal. (Weak signals may cause delays or dropped feeds.)
3. Minimize the number of others using the same WiFi router during the conference.

Further, all participants must identify themselves every time they speak, spell any proper names for the court reporter, and take care not to interrupt or speak over one another. Finally, all of those accessing the conference—whether in listen-only mode or otherwise—are reminded that recording or rebroadcasting of the proceeding is prohibited by law.

In the event of problems with the videoconferencing technology, the Court may move the proceeding to a back-up teleconference line. If that occurs, counsel should access the teleconference using the following information:

Call-In: (888) 363-4749

Access Code: 3667981

Members of the press and public may access this proceeding with the same information but will not be permitted to speak during the teleconference. On such a teleconference, counsel should adhere to the following rules and guidelines during the hearing:

1. Each party should designate a single lawyer to speak on its behalf (including when noting the appearances of other counsel on the telephone).
2. Counsel should use a landline whenever possible, should use a headset instead of a speakerphone, and must mute themselves whenever they are not speaking to eliminate background noise. In addition, counsel should not use voice-activated systems that do not allow the user to know when someone else is trying to speak at the same time.
3. To facilitate an orderly teleconference and the creation of an accurate transcript, counsel are required to identify themselves every time they speak. Counsel should spell any proper names for the court reporter. Counsel should also take special care not to interrupt or speak over one another.
4. If there is a beep or chime indicating that a new caller has joined while counsel is speaking, counsel should pause to allow the Court to ascertain the identity of the new participant and confirm that the court reporter has not been dropped from the call.

SO ORDERED.
